

CAPCSD Honors and Awards

Each year, the Honors and Awards Committee recommends to the Executive Board the names of individuals it concludes should receive the Council's Honors & Awards. Recommendations for honors and awards are submitted to the Past President by January 1. Award recipients are honored at the CAPCSD annual conference banquet in April.

Award of Appreciation - _____
(Presented to individuals in recognition of significant contributions to the Council or to the discipline.)

Special Distinguished Service Award - _____
(Presented to individuals in recognition of a distinguished record of service to the Council.)

Diversity Incentive Award - _____
(Presented annually (beginning in 2002) to the individual, individuals, or academic program making significant contributions to achieving diversity in the field of Communication Sciences and Disorders. Recipients of this award are individuals or academic programs that have made a significant contribution to increasing the presence of under-represented populations in the field of Communication Sciences and Disorders.)

Award for Distinguished Contributions - _____
(Presented to individuals, agencies, businesses, or organizations in recognition of significant and sustained contributions to the Council that have enhanced the Council's ability to serve its membership or which have effectively enriched education in communication sciences and disorders.)

Honors of the Council - _____
(Presented to those individuals whose contributions to the Council and/or to academic education in communication sciences and disorders have been of such magnitude that their impact on the Council or on the education of speech-language pathologists, audiologists, or speech and hearing scientists -- through clinical practice, teaching, research, administration, service, or legislative activity is recognized throughout the professional community. The "Honors of the Council" is the highest honor bestowed by the Council.)
