Tables:

I. Program Information (Tables 1-4)

TABLE 1	Number of institutions providing education at various levels and in major areas of specialization in communication sciences and disorders and the number of programs reported in the Council's 1998-99 Survey.....	22
TABLE 2	Number of undergraduate programs (including institutions with only undergraduate programs and institutions with both undergraduate and graduate programs) in the discipline by region.....	23
TABLE 3	Number of institutions and programs grouped by levels and areas of specialization from 1982-83 to 1998-99 with percent differences over the seventeen year period.....	24

TABLE 4	Location of Communication Sciences and Disorders graduate departments within institutions of higher learning for 1990-91 through 1998-99 with 73 percent of the institutions reporting.....	25
II. Degrees Granted (Tables 5-8)
TABLE 5	Bachelor's degrees awarded in the discipline in 1998-99 by gender and by region, with 77 percent of the institutions reporting .....	26
TABLE 6	Master's degrees awarded in 1998-99 by major, by gender, and by region, with 73 percent of the degree institutions reporting .....	27
TABLE 7	Doctoral degrees awarded in 1998-99 by major, by gender, and by region, with 77 percent of the institutions reporting .....	28
TABLE 8	Degrees granted in communication sciences and disorders by level, major, and gender over a sixteen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison .....	29
III. Theses (Tables 9-11)
TABLE 9	Number of master's and doctoral theses completed between September 1, 1997 and August 31, 1998, with 73 percent of the master's degree and 77 percent of the doctoral degree programs reporting.....	30
TABLE 10	Number of master's theses completed between September 1, 1997 and August 31, 1998 by major .....	30
TABLE 11	Percent of master's degree graduates completing theses over a seventeen-year period by major.....	31
IV. Students (Tables 12-21)
TABLE 12	Enrollment at the undergraduate level by year of enrollment over a seventeen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison.....	31
TABLE 13	Number of undergraduate students and percentage of males in 1998-99 by year and region, with 77 percent of the institutions reporting.....	32

TABLE 14	Master’s students in 1998-99 by major, by full- and part-time enrollment and by region, with 73 percent of the institutions reporting.....	33
TABLE 15	Master’s students in communication sciences and disorders by major, gender, and full- and part-time enrollment over a seventeen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison.....	34
TABLE 16	Enrollment at the master’s level by major and gender over a seventeen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison.....	35
TABLE 17	Doctoral students in 1998-99 by major, by full- and part-time enrollment, and by region, with 77 percent of the institutions reporting.....	35
TABLE 18	Doctoral students in communication sciences and disorders by major, gender, and full- and part-time enrollment.....	36
TABLE 19	Enrollment at the doctoral level by major and gender over a seventeen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison.....	37
TABLE 20	Numbers and percentages of master’s students enrolled related to completed applications, and admissions to graduate programs in 1998-99 by region, with 73 percent of the programs reporting.....	37
TABLE 21	Percentages by region of graduate students enrolled in 1998-99 coming from the department’s own undergraduate program, from another CSD department within the state, out-of-state, from other undergraduate disciplines, and percent non-tradition (older) students.....	38

V. Faculty (Tables 22-23)

TABLE 22	Full- and part-time faculty in 1998-99 by degree, gender, and region, with 75 percent of the institutions reporting.....	39
TABLE 23	Number of full- and part-time faculty over a seventeen-year period. Figures are adjusted to 100 percent for comparison.....	39

VI. Supervisors (Tables 24-25)

TABLE 24	Full- and part-time clinical supervisors in 1998-99 by gender and region, with 73 percent of the institutions reporting .....	40
