

Community Engagement: How can our clinics support our community?

Christie Needham M.A., CCC-SLP

Disclosures

- Full-time salaried faculty at Baldwin Wallace University
- In this role I provide consultation to our community partnerships.

Learning Objectives

- Participants will learn strategies to engage community partners in new and innovative ways.
- Describe the ideal composition of Advisory Committees to truly engage the local community.
- List ways in which to identify community needs.

Ground Rules for this Presentation

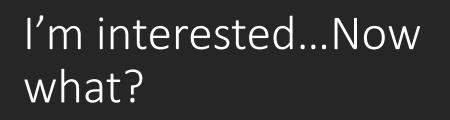

Who Am I?

What are community partnerships?

Step One:

THE TREEHOBOL

Identify the Obvious and Not so Obvious Partners

Step Three:

Listening Sessions

Step Four: Develop a Pilot Program

14.11

Step Five

Develop a Memorandum of Understanding or Plan

Step Five:

The Humpingbirds' Day

I Can Jump

监

GROWING

Institute a Pilot Program

Advisory Boards

Who to ask?

Don't just ask the safe person

How often to meet?

What to talk about?

Success Stories

Concussion management team

Bedford City School District Collaboration

Cleveland Metropolitan School District Pathway Program

Cleveland Clinic Children's Hospital for Rehabilitation Networking Series

Cleveland Clinic Children's

Summary

- Listen to the needs of the community
- Be open to innovation and nontraditional partnerships
- Make sure the relationship is truly a partnership
- Create an advisory board to help you stay on track and hold you accountable
- Listen some more to your partners and your advisory board

Contact

- cneedham@bw.edu
- Christie Needham